Position Overview

NIF offers a 2 week summer placement for those who are passionate about human rights and social justice in Israel and looking for some hands on experience.

We will tailor your skills and interest to our work priorities and give you the opportunity to work with our dynamic team and experience all aspects of our work. You may be helping us put on events, develop social media content, research and create resources.

These are volunteer positions, with a £15 per day stipend for food and travel.

To apply, please provide a CV and a short covering letter setting out your suitability to the role to anna@uknif.org.

We are recruiting for this placement on a rolling-basis – apply soon!
